

Which video signal is supported for the rear view camera?

i Available from firmware version 2.2.3

The video signal of the rear view camera is connected to the cradle's line set using the enclosed RCA adapter line. The video input supports FBAS PAL and NTSC. Under the following link you will find the connection description for rear view cameras: Open link

Unique solution ID: #1083

Author: Tech. Support

Last update: 2023-02-10 13:44